

H5A – ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE

JULY 1, 2001

Title/Class Code	Education and Experience	Substitutions
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE I H5A2TX	Graduation from an accredited law school AND five years of experience practicing law (legal experience acquired after admission to the bar). Necessary Special Requirements: Must have a current license to practice law in Colorado.
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE II H5A3XX	Graduation from an accredited law school AND six years of experience practicing law (legal experience acquired after admission to the bar). Necessary Special Requirements: Must have a current license to practice law in Colorado.	Where the specific education and/or experience is not mandated by state or federal law, at the agency's discretion, documented demonstrated proficiency on position competencies may substitute for the required education and/or experience.
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE III H5A4XX	Graduation from an accredited law school AND six years of experience practicing law (legal experience acquired after admission to the bar) which must include two years of experience functioning as a work leader of an administrative hearings organizational work unit. Necessary Special Requirements: Must have a current license to practice law in Colorado.	Where the specific education and/or experience is not mandated by state or federal law, at the agency's discretion, documented demonstrated proficiency on position competencies may substitute for the required education and/or experience.

Title/Class Code	Education and Experience	Substitutions
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE IV	Graduation from an accredited law school AND six years of experience practicing law (legal experience acquired after admission to the bar) which must include two years of experience supervising an administrative hearings unit.	Where the specific education and/or experience is not mandated by state or federal law, at the agency's discretion, documented demonstrated proficiency on position competencies may substitute for the required education and/or experience.